BRAND VOICE AND MESSAGING

One Liner: A short descriptor that defines what we do in one sentence.

We're a digital talent company that places people first.

30 Second Pitch: This 3-line descriptor is what we might say to a friend, client, or peer at a party.

Our purpose is simple – we want to unite the Freelance Nation and change the way the world thinks about creative staffing, forever. By bringing together the best digital talent and providing them with ongoing support and resources that align with their goals and lifestyles, we believe they can move mountains. Together, we are Filterati, and there's nothing we cannot do. Our Tone and Voice illustrates our brand through words and brings our personality to life. The way we speak lets people know what it's like to work with us. We speak truthfully, without jargon. We are conversationalists, not lecturers. We talk to others like they are real people, about real opportunities, in a fun and authentic way.

OUR GOAL: To inspire hope and remove fear. And foster human progression.

OUR AUDIENCE: All of our internal staff, our candidates and clients alike.

OUR SERVICES: We provide staffing, build Managed Teams and maintain operations.

OUR DIFFERENTIATOR: We're not in the business of just placing people, we're: Placing People. First.

HOW WE SOUND AND SPEAK: We speak from our hearts. We talk about what we do with confidence. We are always optimistic. And we tell it like it is.

THE REVOLUTION. HAS BEGUN.

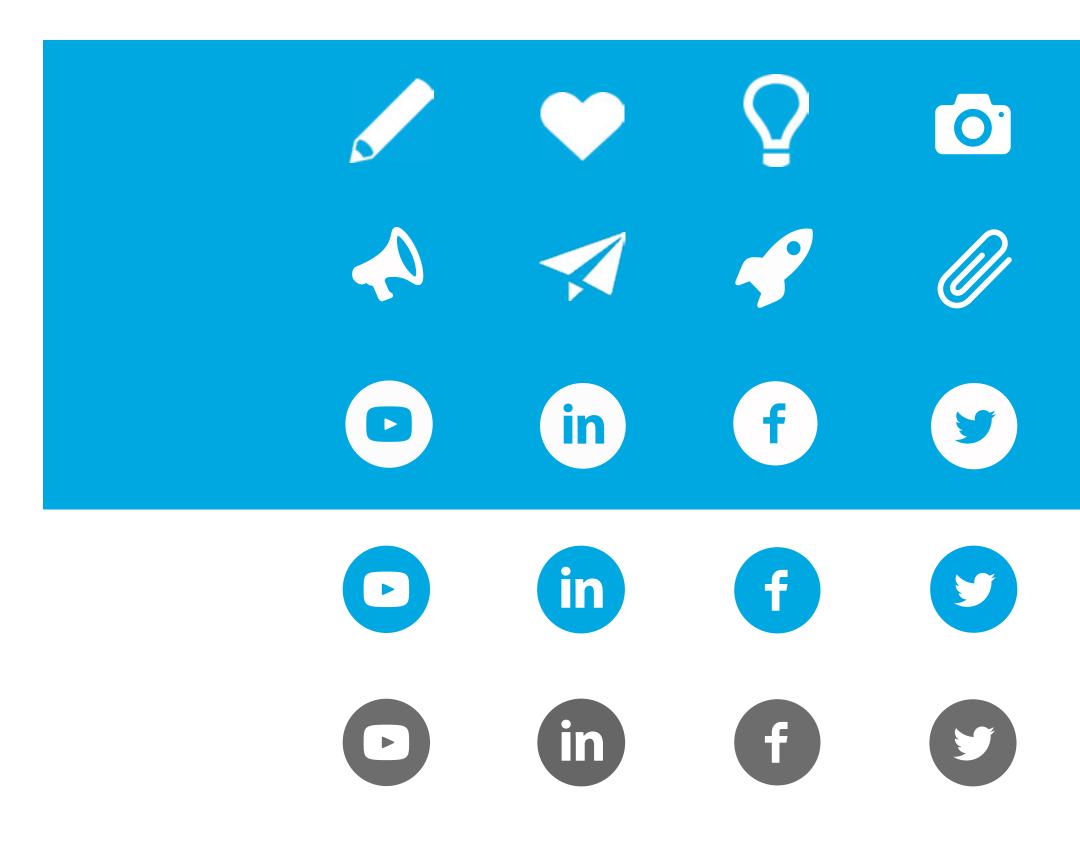

Creative people are constantly innovating and thinking outside the box. This allows them to bring fresh ideas to the table and deliver new concepts every day. They understand that the world is changing, and because of them, so are we.
